Museum To Display Educational Exhibit

Joining the nation-wide Educational Week, exhibits o neducation will be held from April 24 to May 5 at 8-15 museum, announced Kiyotsugu Tsuchiya, director.

He added, "it will be the finest exhibit ever to be held since every class in Manzanar school—from nursery on to adult education—will participate by contributing to the display." The museum will be open afternoons and evenings and on Saturday and Sunday.

Also, the museum has two new members. A stuffed baby wildcat, about nine months old which was caught recently by an evacuee police, and a live road runner. The road runner occupies the cage that once housed the barn owl which died in January.
